The bankruptcy of Kum Sun, of Lahaina, Maui, was before Mr. Justice Bickerton on Thursday. H. Y. Chang, assignee, petitioned for allowance of accounts and discharge. It was ordered that the accounts be allowed, and that, upon the assignee's filing receipts of creditors for the first and final dividend, he be discharged and his bond cancelled.

LABOR AND WEALTH.

Professor Huxley says: "The seven and a half million of workers of England, with the present means of labor, can produce as much in six months as would have required 100 years ago the entire working force of the world one year to equal. The same spirit which has brought us to this is still moving forward with added momentum to new advances and conquest. Gladstone has carefully estimated that the production of wealth in Great Britain since 1800 up to 1870 equals the aggregate acquired during the entire period from the landing of Julius Caesar fifty years before the birth of Christ, up to 1800; also, that the wealth produced from 1850 to 1870 equals the amount produced during the fifty preceding years."

REALLY QUITE CARELESS.

A West Side church is in process of renovation, and the pastor is daily engaged in raising funds to pay the expenses. One means the pastor takes for that purpose is to call on his parishioners and ask for subscriptions. In one case the good man approached the front door of a parishioner's house, rang the bell, the door opened and a little girl appeared.

Pastor—Good afternoon, my child. Is your mother at home?
Little girl—No, sir; mamma is downtown.

Pastor—Will she be back soon?
Little girl—I-I guess so.
Pastor—Then I will come in and wait a few minutes.

Pastor enters and takes a seat in the parlor. Being desirous of knowing what kind of a house his people provide for their families, the clergyman looked about him and soon discovered a pair of feet protruding from under a curtain. A little further optical investigation satisfied him that the feet belonged to the little girl's mother. By-and-by the child appears again and said she thought her mamma would not return for an hour or two. "Well," says the pastor, "I will not wait; but, my child, be kind enough to tell your mother the next time she goes downtown to take her feet with her."
